

Materials translated into Russian

Tactics

- Using the World Bank Inspection Panel
- Using International Mechanisms
- Using the Budgetary Process
- Creating a Written History Based on Oral Testimony to Help People in Isolated Communities Understand the Full Extent of the War Crimes
- Creating a Database tool that protects human rights information from confiscation
- Empowering the youth with democratic tools to promote coexistence
- Adapting traditional human rights fact finding methodology to emerging human rights issues

Notebook

- The Human Rights Program for Women in Turkey
- Expanding Access to Justice
- Familiar Tools, Emerging Issues
- International Monitoring Bodies
- Leveraging the Money
- Promoting Human Rights Professionalism in the Liberian Police Force
- The Dilemma Deconstruction
- The Power of Place: How historic sites can engage citizens in human rights issues
- Uncovering the Evidence
- Using Government Budgets as a Monitoring Tool
- A Call to End Corruption
- Making the Global Local
- Making the State Pay
- Testing for Discrimination

Training tools

- The Need for New Tactics (Guide)
- Understanding Strategy and Tactics
- Developing Strategy and Tactics

Workbook

- The Need for New Tactics, by Douglas A. Johnson
- Chapter Introductions
- Prevention Tactics Chapter
- Intervention Tactics Chapter
- Restorative Tactics Chapter
- Building Human Rights Cultures and institutions Chapter
- Developing Creative Tactics and Strategies
- Adapting Tactics
- Sharing Your Tactics
- Self-Care
- Further Resources